In preparation for the Unit II Test please define each term independently and recognize how they combine to create an overall understanding of class and unit content. Refer primarily to our readings, Unit II content contained on our class website, and class lecture notes. You may consult other resources to prepare for the test in an effort to gain a more general understanding of the material, but know that you will only be tested on how we discussed these terms in class.

10) James Braxton Peterson, “It’s Yours”: Hip Hop Worldviews in the Lyrics of Nas,” “The World is Yours,” American dream, come-up narrative, Brian De Palma, Scarface, dialog, Producer, Pete Rock, “I'm out for dead presidents to represent me.”

11) Mark Anthony Neal, “Memory Lane”: On Jazz, Hip-Hop, and Fathers,” Memory Lane, generational divide, DJ Premier, past and present, Pete Rock and CL Smooth's "They Reminisce Over You."

